Become an Eagles Club Member Today!

Dear Reinhardt Alumni, Family and Friends:

With recent expansions in Reinhardt's athletic department, which includes football kicking off in 2013, now is the time to get on board with supporting Reinhardt Athletics and our 200-plus student-athletes. Again this year, we are making a drive to increase the membership in our Eagles Club, Reinhardt's athletic booster organization. Simply put, being an Eagles Club member is a great way for you to support and contribute to the ever-growing needs of the athletic programs at Reinhardt.

As the University has continued to grow, so have the needs of Reinhardt Athletics. The Eagles Club was launched in 2006 as a way to help offset the costs of many athletic needs, including travel for the teams and upgrades in equipment and facilities, just to name a few. All contributions may be used in the best ways the department sees fit, or they can be directed to specific sports or areas... the choice is yours!

Information about the Eagles Club is included in this brochure, which also provides a registration form for you to complete, detach and return to us. The fair market value of goods and services received may reduce the value of your contribution, however, the remainder of your gift is tax deductible as allowed by law.

Our student-athletes and coaches are geared up successful seasons in 2011-12, and would love to have you be a part of it all. Please visit the official website of Reinhardt Athletics at ReinhardtEagles.com and feel free to contact me with any questions who may have about our Eagles Club.

Go Reinhardt!

About Reinhardt Athletics

Reinhardt sponsors 16 intercollegiate sports, eight for men and eight for women. Reinhardt Athletics also supports a coed cheerleading team, and all 17 programs offer athletic aid. The Eagles and Lady Eagles are members of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) and compete as part of the Appalachian Athletic Conference (AAC) in all sports except for men's and women's lacrosse.

What is the Eagles Club?

The Eagles Club is Reinhardt's athletic booster organization. By giving to the Eagles Club, individuals show support for Reinhardt's intercollegiate athletic programs. Member donations help cover the costs of equipment and other needs within the department. The Eagles Club encourages and coordinates giving and involvement from alumni, faculty, staff, parents and friends of Reinhardt. This enthusiastic support is essential for the continued growth and improvement of our intercollegiate athletic programs.

How Can I Give to the Eagles Club?

Making a gift to the Eagles Club is very simple. Just complete, detach and return the registration form included in this brochure. Or, please feel free to call (770) 720-5568 or (770) 720-9129 and we will be more than happy to take your pledge information over the telephone.

Your Eagles Club gift can be designated toward a general intercollegiate athletic department fund, or it can be earmarked for one of the University's athletic programs. On the application form, be sure to clearly define your preference.

When Can I Join the Eagles Club?

You can join the Eagles Club at any time. Membership covers the entire academic year. However, by joining early, your gift can be used right away to assist Reinhardt's student-athletes and you can enjoy your membership privileges earlier.
